Binford also takes McCloskey and President Lucas to task, and intimates that they favor Boise to Ogden.

Boise to Ogden.

McCloskev left Salt Lake a week ago, stating that he was going to Butte and Helena at the time on matters pertaining to the league. He said he expected to be back within a few days, but has not shown up so far. The di-rectors of the Salt Lake club have not given out anything for publication per-taining to baseball since McCloskey left, and report that there will be nothing doing until he returns, so the ques ing doing until he returns, so the question of which will be the fourth city in the league has not been discussed by those in authority in this city. However, among the fans it is safe to say that Salt Lake prefers Ogden, for the reason that the old-time rivalry between the two towns could belt to draw tween the two towns could help to draw

The matter will not be settled until the league holds its next meeting, the date of which has not been set. President Lucas says this meeting will be held in Butte as soon as matters are in shape to make the summer sched-

Corbett jumped up and both men seemed ready for battle when friends separated the would-be combatants. Fitzsimmons is in St. Louis for the purpose of securing a location for a cafe during the World's fair. Corbett already has a cafe. This probably add-

YOUNG CORBETT BEATS THE PONIES AT LAST

San Francisco, Jan. 31.—Young Corbett, like many another pugilistic champion, delights to bet on the ponies. He has dropped many a bank roll that he had secured through winning some prize fight on account of his love for gambling. Corbett tackled the game out here with most disastrous results. It is estimated that he has lost $7,000 or $8,000 hooking up with the bookmakers since his victory over Han-lon. Corbett had his revenge yesterday and hit the bookies a solar plexus, He in shape to make the summer schedule.

San Francisco, Jan. 38.—Billy Delaney is going back east to have a conference with Jim Jeffries. The old trainer does not think much of this theatrical business, and he would like to see the big champion be more conspicuous in the ring. He would throw no obstacles in the way of Jeff if he took a notion to right Jack Johnson. Delaney has never urged fighters to hunt for negroes' scaips, and if there were any real good heavies his sight, whose skins were white, he would not consider Johnson. Unless Munroe should turn out a wonder, the colored champion seems to be the only man capable of giving Jeffries a fight, and Delaney knows this.

YANGER-HERRERA BOUT STILL HANGING FIRE

Milwaukee, Jan. 30.—There is a hitch in the proposed Benny. Yanger-Aurelio Herrera twenty-round bout which was scheduled to be decided in Butte. Mont. Feb. 25, and the match may fall through. As usual John Hertz, manager of Yanger, wants everything his own way, but he has met a fighter in Herrera who will not concede all points in dispute. Hertz, refused to have any western man referee the fight, while the Mexican wants to leave it for the Butte club to decide. Herrera, however, is willing to have Tim Hurst or Abe Pollock, but Hertz has objected to both men.

LATEST _SPORTING GOSSIP

Early in his championship career John L. Sullivan did not take kindly to newspaper criticism; but he got over that after a while and never even growled, no matter what was said about him, Away back in 1886 Sullivan was billed to box at Cronhelm's theatre in Hoboken. The authorities prevented the bout and John erroneously blamed a newspaper for the action of the police.

P. J. Donahue was then writing pugisism for the New York World. He was cn a Pennsylvania train leaving Jersey City one night when Sullivan and Billy Madden hove on board. John—he had been tilting the tulips—spied Donahue, and flopped down in the seat beside him.

"What's the trouble now, John?" asked Donahue.

"You stopped my boxing at Cronheim's, didn't you?" said John.

Donahue began to explain that he hadn't done anything of the kind, which was true, but Sullivan interrupted him.

"I've a good mind to swat you one in the jaw," he growled, raising the mighty paw threateningly.

Donahue was next the window, and was pocketed. He could not get past Sullivan to escape. It was summer, and Donahue had on a short jacket. He put his hand in the side pocket next to Sullivan, and coolly said.

"Oh no you won't, John, You'll never let that hand fall. You are quick with it. I know, but not so quick as a bullet. If you don't put it down now, I'd pump some lead into your ribs."

Sullivan let the paw fall on Donahue's knee and laughed.

"You're all right, Pete," he said. "You haven't any more gun than, I have, but you're a game fellow, and I like you for it. Shake hands."

Fail of courage himself, Sullivan couldn't help admiring the same virtue.

Fail of courage himself, Sullivan couldn't help admiring the same virtue in another, and Donahue's bluff no doubt saved him from a clouting.

It will be remembered that Young Corbett announced after his fight with Eddie Hanlon that he had cut out 'the pace that kills' and in the future would devote himself to making money and preparing for the time when he could no longer hope to be the champion. On top of this came the report from the coast that Young Corbett had decided to become a benedict, and gossip even went so far as to select a New York miss as a bride for the champion. Roy Evans, the former Ogden pitcher, has been put on the blacklist by Sechetary Farreli of the minor association. Evans, it will be remembered, got into trouble before leaving Ogden and then again butted into difficulty at Butte. He seems to have had trouble in several other towns, according to the following from the San Francisco Bulletin, which says:

"Roy Evans, the gay young pitcher who left here suddenly a comple of years ago, has been put on the "included in the film of the National Baseball association, which means that he will not pursue his favorite occupation this season. Evans has been standing up clubs right along the line for advance money and pocketing it. Providence, Colorado Springs, Minneapolis and Haverhill have been goldbricked by this young scallywag, and now it appears that he has run his gamut.
